Celebrate Birding Culture and Conservation at “A Day with the Birds” Exhibit

GENEVA, IL — The Forest Preserve District of Kane County welcomes the “A Day with the Birds” exhibit to Creek Bend Nature Center, on display from March 16 to May 17, 2026. This unique exhibit, highlighting conservation and citizen science efforts, aims to inspire admiration and stewardship for our avian friends.

Explore this customized collection of specimens, artifacts, murals and artwork curated by the Kauffman Museum at Bethel College in Kansas. This free, family-friendly exhibit is open during regular nature center hours: Monday through Thursday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday from noon to 4 p.m.

District Environmental Education Manager Barb McKittrick noted the importance of the exhibit. “Birds worldwide are in trouble, and they need our help. That starts with curiosity and a willingness to learn,” McKittrick said.

To complement the exhibit, the District is hosting a series of bird-focused programs, including Bird Watching Walks, educational Learn from the Experts talks, and more. To browse our program catalog, visit www.kaneforest.com/public-nature-programs, or register at www.kaneforest.com/register.

For more information on “A Day with the Birds,” call 630-444-3190, visit www.kaneforest.com, or find the Forest Preserve District of Kane County on social media by searching @forestpreserve. Creek Bend Nature Center is located within LeRoy Oakes Forest Preserve at 37W700 Dean St., St. Charles.

“A Day With the Birds” was produced and is toured by Kauffman Museum at Bethel College, North Newton, Kansas. For more information, visit www.kauffmanmuseum.org.
