Gear Up for Nature Games and Winter Fun at Polar-Palooza!

GENEVA, IL — Embrace the winter season with family fun at the Forest Preserve District of Kane County's inaugural Polar-Palooza, a family-friendly festival packed with nature-inspired activities to celebrate the great outdoors and our centennial anniversary!

Join us on Saturday, Jan. 18, from Noon to 3 p.m. at Creek Bend Nature Center for an afternoon of winter-themed games, crafts, and exciting prizes. Whether you're warming up indoors or braving the chill outside, there's something for everyone at this fun-filled event.

Enjoy a variety of activities, from interactive exhibits to nature-based arcade-style games. Complete challenges and earn tickets that can be redeemed for awesome prizes! Don't forget to indulge in complimentary hot chocolate and cookies as you make your way through the festivities.

This free, family-friendly event celebrates both the season and the Forest Preserve District's 100 years of preserving and sharing the wonders of nature. Come explore a winter wonderland of games, crafts, and more!

No registration is required and admission is free. Creek Bend Nature Center is located at 37W700 Dean St., St. Charles. For more information, visit www.kaneforest.com, call 630-444-3190 or find us on social media by searching @forestpreserve.
