Kane County SAO Plans Fourth of July
Anti-DUI Initiative

ST. CHARLES, Ill. - Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser announces that the State's Attorney's Office will work with law enforcement agencies throughout Kane County on an anti-DUI initiative over the Fourth of July holiday. The initiative, called a No-Refusal operation, will start at 10 p.m. on Saturday, July 4, and end at 2 a.m. on Sunday, July 5.

No-Refusal operations are designed to assist police efforts to obtain a search warrant for individuals who refuse to submit to chemical testing after a DUI arrest. Kane County Assistant State's Attorneys are on hand to assist police officers through the search warrant process to compel a DUI suspect to submit to a lawfully requested blood, breath, or urine test as required by Illinois law.

Illinois courts have held that a person has no right to refuse chemical testing when probable cause exists. Anyone who declines to submit to chemical testing after being presented with a search warrant should expect to face additional charges.

State's Attorney Mosser said: "Impaired driving is one of the most preventable threats on our roadways. With Independence Day approaching, we are reminding everyone to make responsible choices. Arrange for a sober ride home, use a rideshare service, call a taxi, or designate a driver. Taking a few minutes to plan ahead can save lives. Law enforcement officers will be working throughout the holiday period to keep our communities safe, and those who endanger others by driving under the influence will be held accountable under the law. We appreciate the dedication of the officers who will be serving and protecting the public during the holiday."
