Kane County Seeks Applicants for Ethics Commission Vacancy

Kane County is seeking a qualified volunteer to fill a vacancy on its five-member Ethics Commission, which reviews complaints alleging violations of the Kane County Ethics Ordinance by County Board members, the County Board Chair and County employees.

The commission investigates complaints, conducts hearings, and makes findings and recommendations regarding disciplinary action or fines when warranted. The position is voluntary and is administered by the Kane County Department of Human Resources and the Ethics Advisor.

Applicants must meet the requirements of the Kane County Ethics Ordinance, including restrictions on familial relationships with elected county officials and political-party representation on the commission. The available position requires the applicant to be a registered Democrat who has voted in Democratic primaries in each of the past three years.

Individuals interested in promoting government accountability, transparency and ethical conduct are encouraged to apply by emailing a letter of interest and resume to Jane Tallitsch in the Kane County Board Office at Tallitschjane@kanecountyil.gov by November 13, 2026.
