Statement from Kane County Board Chairman Corinne Pierog regarding the July 13, 2024, events in Pennsylvania

“I am profoundly saddened by the act of violence that unfolded in Pennsylvania. No one should ever have to fear for their life while voicing their beliefs. While we may debate the values of policies, violent action has no place within our political discourse. My thoughts are with the former president, the bystander who was tragically killed, and all those who were injured or had their safety threatened. I am also grateful for the brave men and women of law enforcement who acted swiftly to safeguard the people in the crowd from further harm. Their courage in such dangerous situations is truly commendable. Additionally, I extend my gratitude to the Kane County State’s Attorney and the Kane County Sheriff for their responsive action to increase patrols at local political events to ensure the safety of our community and democratic process.”
