STATE'S ATTORNEY'S ELECTION COMPLAINT LINE TO BE OPEN FOR NOV. 5 GENERAL ELECTION

Early voters with concerns should call County Clerk

St. Charles, Ill - Kane County voters who observe or experience voting problems or irregularities on election day, November 5, 2024, should call the Kane County State's Attorney's Office or the Kane County Sheriff's Office.

"Free and fair elections are essential to our democracy, and every voter in Kane County has the right to cast their ballot with confidence in the integrity of our electoral system," said Kane County State's Attorney Jamie L. Mosser. "It is the responsibility and privilege of my office to work with law enforcement partners to ensure that voters can exercise their right to vote free of unlawful intimidation or impediment. I encourage anyone who finds their voting protections subject to undue interference, or who witnesses possible illegal election activity, to please contact the number below."

The complaint line will be staffed by representatives of the Kane County State's Attorney's Office. Assistant State's Attorneys will take the complaints about potential violations of Illinois election laws and are prepared to ensure compliance with state election laws.

Anyone who experiences or witnesses any possible illegal election activity, such as electioneering, illegally placed campaign signs or denial of voting rights at any of Kane County's voting precincts should call (630) 208-5328. Voters can contact the Kane County Sheriff by calling (630) 232-6840.

The election complaint line will be available from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Election Day.

Voters should note that this complaint line is not for election questions, such as polling times and places. Voters in need of election information should call the Kane County Clerk's Election Helpline at (630) 232-5990.
