“UNDERSTANDING YOUR PROPERTY TAX BILL” Coming to a Library Near You

(Geneva, Illinois) – The Kane County Treasurer’s Office will have nine (9) outreach events to explain the “new and improved” tax bill and to address taxpayers’ questions. The new format is an approach that improves transparency and accountability. There is a modernized option to go paperless.

We will have a staff member on site at each of these outreach events to make sure citizens are receiving their qualified property tax exemptions. We will check for these exemptions while you wait. If taxpayers do not have their qualified property tax exemptions, we can start the process of how they can obtain those property tax savings.

We will be at the following locations over the next couple of weeks:

April 30th – Town & Country Public Library – 6:30-7:00

May 4th – Batavia Public Library – 5:30-6:00

May 5th – Aurora Public Library West Branch – 5:30-6:00

May 5th – Aurora Public Library Santori Branch – 6:30-7:00

May 6th – Huntley Area Public Library – 6:00-6:30

May 7th – Sugar Grove Public Library – 5:30-6:00

May 11th – St. Charles Public Library – 5:30-6:00

May 18th – Gail Borden Public Library Elgin – 5:00-5:30

May 18th – Gail Borden Public Library South Elgin 6:00 – 6:30
